Winkler, Inc. recently hired Marc Rubben for our customer/vendor trade show dinner. Marc made us laugh until our jaws hurt. We used his “clean” show and he proved hilarious can be clean. Marc’s interaction with the audience was the perfect balance of funny and respect. He brought several audience members on stage and made them “stars” while making them feel very comfortable in the spotlight. Mr. Rubben is a gentleman performer and I would recommend his show for any corporate event.
